Kitchen Appreciation Fee

As many of you know, one of the goals of reopening the diner was both to continue to offer employment to our long-time staff, as well as guarantee the same quality food that Berkeley has enjoyed for decades. The 3% dining fee was added to retain the long term staff who have helped make the Diner and the To Go a Berkeley institution; without them, we wouldn't have been able to do what we are doing for the community.

Why don't we pay our employees a fair living wage?

We do. The kitchen fee isn't in lieu of a fair living wage, it's in addition to it. The 3% fee guarantees that the kitchen staff is rewarded with an incremental bonus based on the success of the restaurant.

Why not increase the menu prices by 3%?

Increasing menu prices wouldn't achieve the same result. Although we have had to increase our prices to keep up with higher food costs, adding a 3% charge to keep our kitchen staff offers an incentive based on daily sales. Increasing prices by 3% wouldn't allow us to pass that increase directly to our staff through payroll.
