

Weekly Specials

March 18th through March 22nd

Pancakes & Waffles

Served with real maple syrup.

Extra maple syrup $1.50.

strawberry souffle pancake a fluffy pancake made with strawberries & lightened with beaten egg whites and baked in the oven$22.95 (please allow up to 40 minutes to prepare) apple buckwheat pancake or waffle two eggs cooked any style served with aside of chicken apple sausage$19.95

farmers scramble with linguica, sauteed peppers & onions, potatoes & levain toast$21.95

oceanview garden salad watercress, radicchio, arugula, beets, avocado, hard-boiled egg & chickpeas with house-made vinaigrette$16.50

chia pudding with fresh fruit$8.25 bloody mary house-made bloody mary mix and sabe sake$9.75

pomegranate cocktail$8.75

mimosa (grapefruit or orange juice)$8.75

strawberry mimosa$9.00

kir royale$8.75

oceanview sunrise$9.75

white chocolate mocha$6.00

strawberry lemonade$4.75

chocolate strawberry milkshake$9.95

vanilla strawberry milkshake$9.95

Breakfast

Brunch Cocktails

Where's the ocean view?

A Bit of Berkeley History

In the early 1850's there was a small settlement between a stagecoach stop on what is now San Pablo Avenue and Jacob's Landing, a wharf at the end of Delaware Street. It was called Ocean View. The settlement developed into a commercial and industrial center with a grist mill, a soap factory, a blacksmith, an inn and store and a school. Its inhabitants were workers and farmers. It grew slowly around its core at Sixth and Hearst Streets, and was the only center of social life in what was to become Berkeley. Most of Berkeley at that time was farmland. Ocean View and Berkeley came together and incorporated in 1878 to avoid becoming part of Oakland. Ocean View then became known as West Berkeley.